The Booking Process

If you would like to reserve the date for your Wedding Ceremony & Reception please contact us so that we can setup a formal contract for you. Once you receive the contract

1) Print and review the Music Contract.

2) Please confirm all information is correct.

3) Please sign and mail the Music Contract to Elite Entertainment.

4) Please include your deposit when you mail the Music Contract. Some Music Contracts may not require a deposit. If that is the case, a deposit amount of $0.00 will be shown above. Please note: You must sign and send in your Music Contract even if no deposit is required.

Please mail your deposit and/or your music contract to us at Elite Entertainment, P.O. Box 30055 Stockton, Ca 95213. Your date will be on hold for you for 10 days from today's date. If you should need longer than the 10 days to send in your Music Contract and deposit, then please contact our office as soon as possible. Thank you.

Once we receive your Music Contract and deposit, we will send you a Music Confirmation for your date. We will also send you a receipt for your deposit. We will not need your music selections back at this time. Your Music Selections, Timeline and your Event Planner are due 4 weeks before your event date. In the meantime if you should have any questions or need any assistance then please contact us. We would be more than happy to assist you.
